

I would like to keep k-love radio in my area because it is a positive influence and provides wholesome programming, and there are too many of the non-positive,non-family programs already out there influencing people negatively